

THE SEARCH IS ON FOR LIBRARIAN OF THE YEAR 2009!

NORTH WEST BRANCH NOMINEE

ENNY NYATHI

Enny began her working career in July 1997 as a Community Health Worker. She was always fond of books and reading and one day visited a library for the very first time, from that day on she pictured herself behind the counter, packing books and helping people. Through the support of her supervisor she was transferred to work in one of the local libraries on six months probation. From that day she never looked back!

In 2002 Enny registered with Technikon SA for a Diploma in Library Science and is now studying towards her degree through UNISA.

Enny, as well as being a LIASA member is Secretary of the Forum for Bojanala District and Community and Public Libraries and her enthusiasm for her work earned her Employee of the Year Award in the Library Division in 2004.
